

Fourth Sunday of Lent / Mothering Sunday

19th March 2023

Also Fifth Sunday of Lent / Passion Sunday

26th March 2023

Hello Everyone,

Here's a 2-week bumper edition!

I've been at a zoom session introducing the Coronation Service this morning and wonder whether there is any interest in live streaming the service in church on the morning Saturday 6th May? We do now have the technology to offer this - at least in theory!

Also, souvenir booklets of prayers for the Coronation of the King will be available soon – I've ordered 50 copies as I know they are selling fast so look out for them in church. (Donations of £1.10 appreciated)

On Pentecost Sunday (11am 28th May) the service at the Cathedral includes Confirmation. If you are interested in being confirmed please let me know asap so we can start the preparation sessions. You will also need to be available for the rehearsal at the Cathedral on Sunday 14th May at 5.15pm. The sessions will be open to anyone who wants to find out more about the Christian faith.

- This Sunday is Mothering Sunday and we will have an 'All-age' service of Holy Communion at 9.30am as well as a quiet said service of Holy Communion at 11.30am. Barry is busy making primula pots as gifts for Mothers. We've also got Wild Church in the churchyard this Sunday at 4pm
- 26th March is Passion Sunday (and the clocks go forward that morning.) Our Area Dean, the Revd Phelim O'Hare will be the preacher at the 9.30am service.
- Palm Cross Making Barbara Finch is again making Palm Crosses and would love people to join her in doing this from 2.30pm – c4.30pm (or for as long as you are able) on Monday 27th March in one of the public rooms at Ash Grove, next to Northfield Baptist Church
- there will be a meeting open to all at 7pm Wednesday 29th March in the Pastoral Centre to discuss the arrangements when we go into Vacancy following my retirement. We are trying to identify all that needs to be covered and invite 'the baptised people of God' to pray and participate in all the opportunities on offer going forward.

Holy Week looks like this

- Palm Sunday (2nd April) 9.30am service including distribution of Palm Crosses. It is also Revd Theresa's last Sunday so at the end of the service there will be a presentation followed by tea/coffee and cakes in the Pastoral Centre. Also 8.30am Sunday School Service and 4pm Wild Church

- Mon, Tue, Wed Compline 8.30pm by phone
- Maundy Thursday 7.30pm Maundy Liturgy and Holy Communion with (optional) vigil till 9.30pm
- Good Friday – 10am Hot Cross Bun Service
  - 12noon – 3pm The Three Hours to include Dramatic Passion Reading - see below
  - 7pm Stations of the Cross outside
- Holy Saturday – setting up church in morning No Services
- Easter Sunday (9th April) - 9.30am Sunday Holy Communion (all-age)
  - 11.30am Said HC(No Sunday School Service or Wild Church Easter Sunday)

ALSO

Dramatic Passion Reading – We are hoping to read the dramatized Passion from St. Matthew's Gospel during the Three Hours on Good Friday (7th April). To do this we need 8 people who will commit to being there on Good Friday afternoon and to coming to rehearsals on Good Friday morning at 9.30 and the afternoon of Palm Sunday (2nd April) at 2.30. If you are prepared to commit to this, please write your details on the sheet at the back of Church by 26th March. Janice Wones.

Following more discussion at the recent PCC meeting we confirmed our decision (with one abstention) to re-introduce the "Common Cup" on Easter Sunday as accords with canon law and Anglican theology. It was in May last year that this was first permitted as the pandemic risks decreased. Most CofE churches have now re-introduced this and have stopped offering 'simultaneous administration' of the bread and the wine which is what we have been doing.

When we start to offer wine from the chalice everyone who receives HC will be offered the bread and then there will be the choice of either receiving wine by drinking from the chalice or simply returning to your seat. The CofE is clear that Christ is fully present in both bread and wine so everyone will receive the fullness of Christ whether in bread and wine or bread alone.

Suspending the common cup was a wise decision during the pandemic but it is generally accepted that by using a silver chalice and relatively strong communion wine, the risks of transmitting illnesses is low.

However, we do ask that we care for one another so if you have a cold sore please do not receive the wine and if you are feeling unwell please remain at home.

After the service today and on 26th March there will be a short training session for those who administer Holy Communion (and those considering their invitation to take up this ministry)

Fair Trade Easter Eggs can be ordered through church – sign up sheet at back of church

Milk choc eggs are £4.50

Dark choc eggs are £5.50

Fun Pack including 6 milk choc midi eggs and Easter story activities. £5

Meanwhile the Lent Group continues on Tuesdays at 7.30 -8.30pm in the Pastoral Centre (upstairs hall). Each session is 'stand-alone.' It is based on the book "Eavesdropping - learning to pray from those who talked to Jesus" by Henry Martin but you don't need your own copy. If you could let Marianna know in advance that would be helpful. e-mail marina.melville@btinternet.com or tel 07967011387

We are looking forward to the Safeguarding Workshop on Saturday 18th March which runs from 10am – 1pm and will include lunch – the chips have been ordered! Please arrive at the Pastoral Centre between 9.50 – 10am. You can do the course on-line at home. Please e-mail Revd Theresa if you would like details

Thank you to the Holy Dusters Team for cleaning the church on Tuesday. We can spot the difference

Saturday 25th March is the Feast of the Annunciation – only 9 months till Christmas! The Mothers' Union is organising a service of Holy Communion in church at 11.30am followed by soup in the Pastoral Centre.

Sadly, we have had to close off some areas of the church until we can do the next stage of repairs to the ceiling. We received the architect's report a few days ago and feel that it is prudent to close off the few areas which are particularly risky. We immediately got the report off to the Diocesan Advisory Committee for permission to do the repairs and hope to schedule around summer weddings without having to close the church.

Also from Janice Wones: KNITTERS – Would you like to do a Lenten project? Would you like to knit one or two pairs of matching hearts? I will collect them as you finish them, or at Easter if you prefer. I will then pass them on to the NHS to be included in memory boxes or given to people affected by dementia. I will leave a few patterns at the back of church. I will get more copied if and when those are taken.

Janice adds....

I have just bought a big bag of stuffing. If you have not got any stuffing for your pairs of knitted hearts, bring them (preferably knitted and partially sewn up) to church or the pastoral centre on Sunday and you can have some of mine.

100 Club - The third prize draw of the year for March took place Tuesday 14 Mar at the coffee morning gathering in The Black Horse. The winners were Anne Stock £20 number 36, Chris Michael £15 number 89, John Orchard £10 number 11. Congratulations to them. For more information about the 100 Club click the link below.

Art Installations in St Francis Church, Thursday 16th to Sunday 26th March

St Francis Church, Bournville is hosting the Gethsemane Garments and Bald Statements art installations which are kindly on loan from the Westhill Endowment. Each installation explores the journeys we may travel through our emotional responses to personal loss, the world, and the hope of the future.

Open for browsing and light refreshments

- Sat 18th & 25th March 10am – 12noon
- Thursday 23 March 10.30 – 12.30pm
- And a led reflection on Thursday 23rd March 7pm

It was great to be at St David's on Tuesday for the induction and collation of Fr Paul Cho as Vicar. We pray for him at the start of this new ministry – and especially that he and family will be able to move into the Vicarage soon. Fr David and Anne Pycock managed to attend despite their removal van having been loaded that day and, hopefully, now unloaded in Sherfield on Loddo, near Basingstoke. David will be licensed to the benefice of Stratfield with Saye with Hartley Wespall and Stratfield Turgis and Bramley on 27 March. Elaine Clements is planning to attend the service.

Thinking ahead

- On the day of Revd Theresa's licensing at St Bartholomew's (23rd April) there will NOT be a 9.30am service at St Laurence but there will be short, said Holy Communion service at 4pm. Please pray for Theresa and her family at this time of change.
- We're having a Christian Aid Plant stall on Sunday 11th June (we had planned to have it in May but it wasn't working out!) Please do sow a few extra seeds and start taking cuttings ready for the sale.

As we pray for the call of our new bishop,
we thank you that the whole earth, its people and places,
are equally precious to you.
